

Carling Muir Award for Determination, Courage and Resilience

ABOUT CARLING MUIR:

Carling Muir was passionate about basketball. She was named a CCAA All-Canadian, a PACWEST Conference All-Star a number of times, the PACWEST Conference Player of the Year for 2007/08 and was recognized with Sport BC's Harry Jerome Comeback Award. She also coached young basketball athletes, volunteered with kids fighting cancer, was an inspirational speaker at fundraisers for the BC Cancer Agency and spearheaded fundraisers to raise monies for brain cancer research. This bursary is a living tribute to the "no quit" spirit that Carling displayed throughout her courageous 14 year battle with brain cancer.

ABOUT THE AWARD:

An annual award of $2000 will be made available to a student athlete playing basketball at a post-secondary institution in BC who has demonstrated exceptional ethics, dedication to team and/or community, and perseverance through overcoming adversity. The recipient may be a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant and may be male or female.

The Award is supported by the Carling Elizabeth Muir Bursary Fund, a fund held at Vancouver Foundation. Donations to the Carling Muir Award for Determination, Courage and Resilience can be made to the Carling Elizabeth Muir Bursary Fund.
