

Duncan Anderson Memorial Scholarship

Presented by: The Duncan Anderson Memorial Foundation

Duncan Anderson was a dedicated high school teacher and basketball coach in the Delta School District. From 1974-2012 he taught and coached in five of the seven secondary schools in Delta. Duncan also coached various Basketball BC teams. His love of the game and commitment to developing student athletes touched and inspired many.

The $1,000 scholarship, supported by the Duncan Anderson Memorial Foundation, was inaugurally awarded in 2020 and is open to a graduating female or male basketball athlete who satisfies the application requirements:

- Reference letters (minimum of two) that can attest to the applicants:
 - Passion for the game
 - Work ethic
 - Leadership
 - Commitment to team success
- Proof of a minimum of a B average in Grade 11
- Acceptance into a post-secondary institution (university, college)
